

SANCTIR

Decision support for national security and economic statecraft

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

CAGE 22H91 · SAM.gov registered

Sanctir applies structured analytic tradecraft to regulatory and security questions that must withstand legal, technical and executive review — for government, defense and dual-use firms, investors and outside counsel working across counterterrorism, counterproliferation, counternarcotics, sanctions, export control and cybersecurity.

CORE COMPETENCIES

National security policy & legislation

Structured assessments for decision-makers; legislative discussion drafts with adversarial legal review; expert analysis supporting counsel in enforcement and litigation.

Sanctions, counterterrorism & illicit finance

OFAC sanctions risk and screening program design, beneficial-ownership and counterparty exposure, terrorist and hostile-state financing networks.

Counternarcotics

Cartel strategy and finance, fentanyl and synthetic-drug supply chains, emergency scheduling of emerging drug threats.

Export controls & counterproliferation

ITAR and EAR jurisdiction and classification, 10 CFR Part 810, deemed exports, Entity List and multi-tier supply-chain exposure, voluntary self-disclosures.

Arms, defense & biodefense

Weapons and unmanned-systems threat analysis, defense engineering review, biological weapons threats and biodefense policy.

Cybersecurity & CMMC

NIST SP 800-171 assessment, SSP and POA&M development, CUI boundary definition, independent review of whether an attestation is supportable.

CONTRACT DELIVERABLES

Sanctions exposure and counterparty assessment · Export jurisdiction and classification memorandum (ITAR/EAR, Part 810) · CMMC / NIST SP 800-171 attestation review · Supply-chain risk memorandum · Legislative analysis and discussion drafts · Expert analysis supporting counsel. Terms: fixed-scope, retained, or hourly.

PUBLISHED RECORD

16 published works at sanctir.com/research, including 4 legislative series (11 documents); working papers distributed through SSRN.

Subjects: Mexican fentanyl cartels; the 2026 Iran war; drone threats to political leadership; U.S.–China competition; CMMC Phase 2; 10 CFR Part 810; sanctions screening.

COMPANY DATA

Entity	Sanctir LLC
Formation	Delaware LLC
Location	Redmond, Washington
CAGE	22H91
UEI	EYCWM7J4VB7
Environment	Microsoft GCC — validated
Contact	Collin B. George
NAICS	541690 (primary) · 541330 · 541512 · 541519 · 541611 · 541618 · 541714 · 541715 · 541720 · 541990

DIFFERENTIATORS

Intelligence-community tradecraft. Probability and confidence stated separately; evidence tiered by reliability; limits named.

Verification you can audit. Published claim-by-claim records — 175 rows for one working paper.

Adversarial review built in. Every draft is tested against its strongest challenges before release.

Independent. No agency, political or commercial sponsor; conflict-of-interest review on every engagement.

PRINCIPAL

Collin B. George, CISSP

Prior support to the U.S. Department of Energy and U.S. Department of State in cybersecurity and national security roles. B.S. Cybersecurity, summa cum laude; graduate coursework in intelligence analysis, Johns Hopkins University.

ORCID 0009-0007-8162-6839